Mr Harold Weisberg
Hyattstown, Md.

Dear Mr Weisberg:

This past week I was one of the viewers of the TV broadcast which stated it was a penetrating analysis in depth of the Warren Commission report on the assassination of former President John F. Kennedy. You were one of the men on that program. It was stated you are the author of a 1966 book entitled

"Whitewash: The Report on the Warren Report".

I understand you also are its publisher. I tried to buy a copy here in Manhattan in N.Y. City, but could not find any bookstore selling it. Could I buy one copy from you? If so, how much shall I mail you?

Sincerely
Sam W. Licks

P.S. Have you any idea who published Forgive My Grief, by Ben Jones (who also appeared with you on that TV broadcast)? I can't find a bookstore in Manhattan that even heard of the book. I'd like to buy one copy of that book also.
